Descripción de una unidad

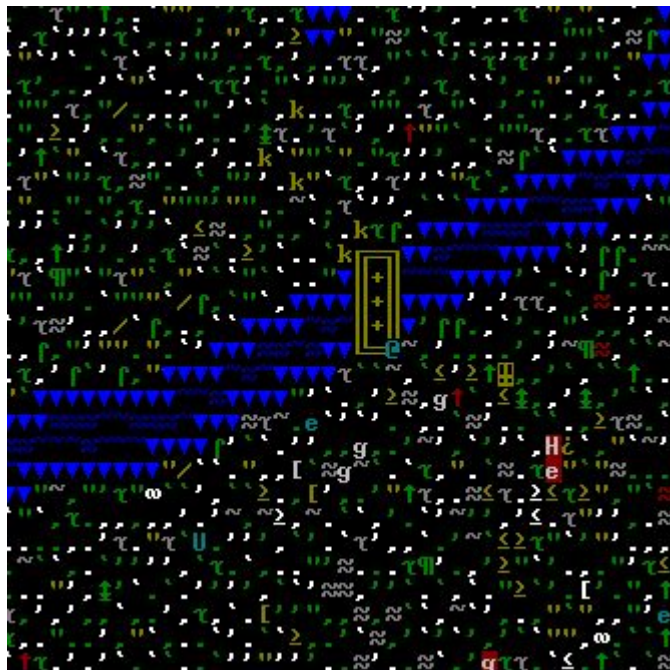

Fikod ònùlbeakar, "Fikod Mirrordipped", Miner

"Sometimes I just don't like somebody."

She is an ardent worshipper of Ritas the Mist of Subtlety and an ardent worshipper of Kogan. She is a citizen of The Ceiling of Imprisonment. She is a member of The Dagger of Scorching. She arrived at Sarveshrinul on the 15th of Granite in the year 250. She is sixty-eight years old, born on the 28th of Sandstone in the year 182. Her very long hair is neatly combed. Her nose is upturned. Her somewhat splayed out ears are broad. Her hair is ecru. Her skin is dark tan. Her eyes are brass. She is quick to heal, but she is very flimsy. Fikod ònùlbeakar likes bauxite, sterling silver, yellow jasper, hemp plant fiber fabric, the color light blue, leather armor, grates, ballista arrows, reindeer for their large herds and mountain gnomes for their ability to hold liquor. When possible, she prefers to consume copperhead snake, sole and rice beer. She absolutely detests bark scorpions. She has a very good sense of empathy, a very good sense of the position of her own body, good creativity, a good intellect and a feel for music, but she has little willpower, quite poor focus, poor social senses and very little patience. Like others in her culture, she holds crafts-dwarfship to be of the highest ideals and celebrates talented artisans and their masterworks, has a great deal of respect for the law, greatly prizes loyalty, values family greatly, believes that honesty is a high ideal, greatly respects artists and their works, really respects those that take the time to master a skill, deeply respects those that work hard at their labors, respects fair-dealing and fair-play, values cooperation, values martial prowess, values leisure time, respects commerce and finds nature somewhat disturbing. She personally is completely put off by the idea of friends, sees merry-making as a waste and values eloquence. She dreams of crafting a masterwork someday. She is often sad and dejected. She has a low sense of self-esteem. She greatly moved by art and natural beauty, and she is troubled by this since she dislikes the natural world. She is extremely confident of herself in situations requiring her skills. She is quick to form negative views about things. She can occasionally lose focus on the matter at hand. She is not particularly interested in what others think of her. She has an active imagination. She likes to keep things practical, without delving too deeply into the abstract. She can handle stress. She is stubborn. She can sometimes act without deliberation. She holds her breath when she's nervous. She needs alcohol to get through the working day. She likes working outdoors and grumbles only mildly at inclement weather.

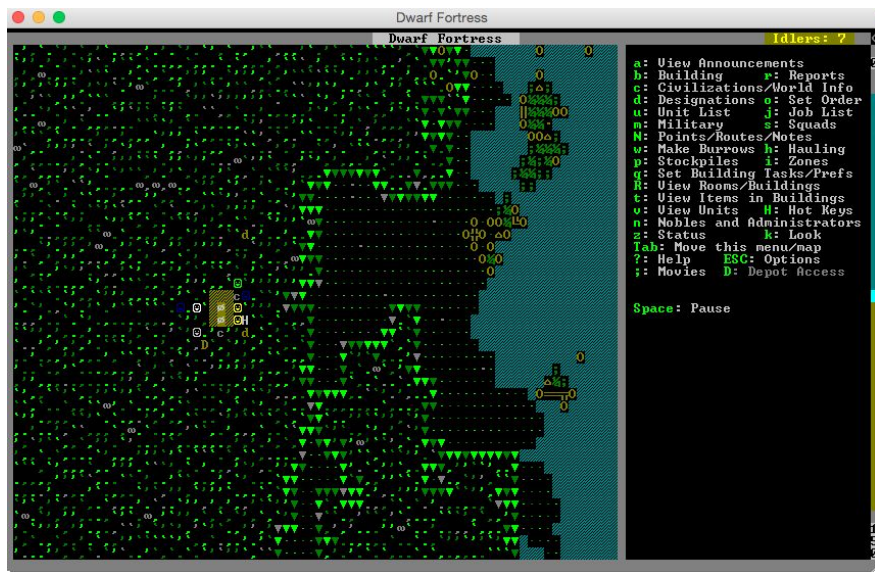

A short, sturdy creature fond of drink and industry.
